

NEW STORE WAS FALLING, GAVE NO ALARM

Neglect of Workmen Cost Thirteen Lives in Albany Disaster.

ALBANY, Aug. 24.—The coroner's examination of workmen who were digging a cellar under the Myers department store at the time of its collapse, Aug. 8, has shown that while the men were warned of the approaching disaster for nearly an hour before the structure fell and crushed the life out of thirteen persons no warning was given to the 320 persons on the floors above.

The laborers dug away the earth about the bases of the pillars supporting the center of the building, leaving them resting on high mounds of earth. John Mitchell, the foreman, testified that one-half hour before the crash he and others saw pier No. 9 had begun crumbling. For that half hour the crumbling continued while the whole force of men kept working at pier No. 8 with a desperation born of the knowledge that the safety of the entire building depended upon getting it shored up in time.

Five minutes before the crash came the superintendent left the gang in the cellar, saying he was going above to warn employees of the danger. At the last minute, realizing that their efforts to save the building were useless, the workmen rushed out.

SARDINES CAUSED PTOMAIN POISON.

Mrs. Elizabeth Biddlecombe and Her Two Children Are Made Violently Ill.

Mrs. Elizabeth Biddlecombe and her two children, Elizabeth, aged seven, and Charles, five, are in the Cumberland Street Hospital, Brooklyn, suffering from ptomaine poisoning.

Mrs. Biddlecombe, who lives at No. 303 Kent avenue, Williamsburg, had sardines for luncheon yesterday. In the afternoon she and the two children were taken violently ill, and for a time their lives were in danger.

At the hospital to-day the physicians say that mother and children will recover.

WIFE FOUND SUICIDE'S BODY.

Charles Boland, a tailor, killed himself to-day in his shop, No. 102 E. 14th street, Williamsburg, by inhaling gas. After closing windows and doors he placed in his mouth a rubber tube connected with the gas jet and turned on the cock. He was found dead by his wife and daughter.

Boland was in good financial condition. His wife can assign no reason for ending his life.

TOO SMALL TO LAND HERE.

Mrs. Clara Schwetky and her two children came to this country to join the husband and father, who awaited them. The mother is very small and is declared to be an undesirable citizen. The mother and children will be deported to-morrow.

AERONAUT DRAGGED THROUGH SOUND

(Special to The Evening World.) SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Aug. 24.—Hundreds of persons here to-day saw the thrilling rescue of George Baker, an aviator, who, while making a balloon ascension, became entangled in the ropes of the apparatus and would have drowned had not he been rescued by one of the many small craft that were in the sound at the time.

The balloon had hardly started in its ascension when it was noticed that something had gone wrong. Then it was seen that the ropes were caught around Baker's neck. There was a strong wind blowing at the time and the balloon was sent spinning over the water, dragging the aeronaut with it. When Baker was rescued it took some time to resuscitate him.

YOUNG CHURCHWOMAN A SUICIDE BY GAS.

Miss Catherine Pope, in ill health kills herself in bathroom of home while her family slept.

Miss Catherine Pope, of No. 101 Summit avenue, Jersey City, committed suicide to-day by inhaling illuminating gas. Her body was discovered in the bathroom of the Pope home by her brother Alfred. She had killed herself during

BROTHER SEEKS MISSING SISTER

Girl Ill as She Starts for Her Home Is Taken to Hospital and Disappears After Her Discharge.

Hugh Mallon, of No. 205 West Twenty-seventh street, is seeking information as to the whereabouts of his sister Elizabeth, who disappeared on May 10 last. He has traced the girl to the Metropolitan Hospital, from which she was discharged on July 3.

The missing girl has only been in the country a few months, and soon after her arrival secured a position in a hotel. On May 10 she left the hotel, saying she was sick and would go to her brother's home.

She evidently forgot the number and wandered about until taken to the hospital. The records of the institution show that she entered there on May 11. Mallon is afraid the girl has been wandering about since her discharge from the hospital unable to find him.

WOMEN HURT IN CAR PANIC.

Two Jumped and Were Injured When Trolley Fuse Blew Out.

(Special to The Evening World.) NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 24.—Two women were injured as a result of a panic aboard a trolley car on the Orange line caused by the blowing out of a fuse last night.

Mrs. E. J. Smith, of No. 416 South Sixth street, and Mrs. Elizabeth Gans, of No. 94 Oliver street, Newark, were sitting on an end seat, and as the fuse blew out with a loud report a sheet of flame shot up from the fuse of the car. The women jumped, each sustaining injuries. They were conveyed to their homes.

AT 82 HE INSISTS ON TAKING A WIFE

(Special to The Evening World.) BENNINGTON, Vt., Aug. 24.—Habeas corpus proceedings were to-day begun before Judge Loveland Monson, of the Vermont Supreme Court, by Columbus Huling, of North Bennington.

Mr. Huling, who is eighty-two years old, desires to secure possession of his property, valued at about $500,000, in order that he may marry Jessie Blaisell, the twenty-six-year-old daughter of a neighbor.

The wedding would have taken place some days ago, but Mr. Huling's nephews and nieces secured the appointment of Judge Monson, on the ground that the old man was incapable of making his own decisions.

Backed in his matrimonial designs, Mr. Huling determined to secure legal counsel. He made an appointment with T. W. Maloney, of Rutland. The guardian of the estate of the old man, who was called upon to appear, refused to do so, and Mr. Huling was arrested and bailed by his employers.

WATCH SET ON WOOD'S GRAVE

(Special to The Evening World.) WHITE PLAINS, Aug. 24.—Mrs. G. W. Mohr Wood, the former actress, who, it is reported, has agreed to accept one-fourth of her late millionaire husband's estate, in addition to his mansion on Riverside Drive, has engaged a man and woman to watch Mr. Wood's grave in Kensico Cemetery.

The couple have leased a house near the cemetery, and the wife is on guard in the day time, while the husband watches at night. Orders have been issued that no one be allowed near the grave, and a close watch is being kept to see that the body is not removed by relatives of the dead millionaire.

It is reported that Mrs. Wood, as soon as she effects a settlement, will leave a country house near Kensico, so she will be near the grave and can decorate it daily with fresh flowers.

One of the conditions on which the children of Mr. Wood agreed to settle was that she and her attorney hereafter maintain silence concerning the family's affairs. Mr. Catlin went to Kensico and there interviewed the children of Mr. Wood.

According to the latest agreement, Mrs. Wood will receive about $2,000,000. The estate is valued at something less than $10,000,000.
